April 2019

Dear Parents

Sports Leadership & Officiating Opportunities - FA Junior Leaders Course

It is my intention to provide the FA Junior Leaders Course delivered by a tutor from the Football Association. The course content is as follows:

Introduction to the Course – Course content – How to get involved in Football – Getting involved & helping those involved to “get better”

Assisting Football Activity Sessions – Creating a Safe Learning environment – Organising games – Introduction to the basics of Fundamentals

An introduction to Refereeing – Preparing to referee – Whistle techniques and introduction to Ball In, Ball Out – Safety of the Players and Re-starts to the Game

Helping with a Team – Preparing for the game – Warm-up prior to the game – Organising and Managing players expectations

Different Football Events – An introduction to three different formats of competition – Using these in a practical setting Practical Involvement: Candidates will be encouraged to participate practically to maximise their opportunities for learning (however inability to participate will not prevent successful completion of the award).
