

Be your best self

17:15, Wednesday 30th December 2020

Dear Parents, Carers (& Students),

I hope you are having a restful break.

I'm sure you are now aware of the content of the address to The Commons made by the Secretary of State for Education late this afternoon concerning the revised expectations for the start of the Spring term for secondary schools.

This means secondary school settings will now have to comprehensively re-plan for the first few weeks of term. I hope to be able to share our new arrangements for the start of term with you as soon as possible.

Thank you for your forbearance at this challenging time.

Kind regards,

Andrew Parkinson
